

Easter in Australia

Easter in Australia is about remembering the story of Jesus and also enjoying fun traditions like easter egg hunts.

In Catholic schools, students will act the story of Jesus and do craft activities like you do in Spain.

Holy Week –

- Good Friday – Christians will go to church and will not eat meat on this day
- Holy Saturday
- Easter Sunday – the main day of celebration
- Easter Monday

Good Friday and Easter Monday are public holidays.

Easter Bunny & Easter egg hunts

On Easter Sunday morning Australian kids wake up to find Easter Eggs and an easter egg hunt.

On Easter Sunday it is ok to eat chocolate for breakfast

Hot Cross Buns

Hot Cross Buns are sweet and tasty buns eaten on Good Friday.

They are called this because they have a cross on top.

Traditional hot cross buns are made with spices and fruit. But now they have chocolate and, also VEGEMITE hot cross buns.

You can eat them warm with butter!

Easter Sunday – Family gatherings & Celebrations

- It is common that families will have a special lunch together on Easter Sunday
- People will usually eat a roast lamb on Easter Sunday

Long Weekend Activities

- Easter in Australia is a long weekend – that means people get a few days off school!
- Some families take the chance to go camping or visit family in different towns.
